Congratulations to Kholoud AlEnizi for a baby named Wasan. Congratulations to Adel for a handsome boy Sultan. Congratulations to Mohammad for a cute boy Sultan.
The competitions in the Ramadan Football League for Youngsters were held at the KFMC Olympic Stadium. The league was divided into three stages: the division stage, the league stage, and the championship stage. Each stage comprised 10 rounds, and the teams that accumulated the highest points would progress to the next stage. The top teams from each league stage would qualify for the championship stage, where they would compete for the Ramadan Football League for Youngsters championship trophy.

During the championship stage, the teams played against each other in a round-robin format. The overall league standings were determined by the number of points accumulated based on wins, draws, and losses. The team with the highest points at the end of the championship stage would be declared the champion of the Ramadan Football League for Youngsters.

The Self-Financing Fund Secretary General Ahmed Abdul Aziz Al-Razok commended the organizing body for their efforts in holding the Ramadan Football League for Youngsters. He expressed his satisfaction with the level of performance by the participating teams and praised the quality of the matches. The Secretary General also highlighted the role of the Self-Financing Fund in promoting sports activities and encouraging young talent.

The closing ceremony of the Ramadan Championships and Open Water Swimming Championship were held in the presence of the Self-Financing Fund Secretary General Ahmed Abdul Aziz Al-Razok, who honored and granted medals and appreciation certificates to the winners. The winners were also presented with certificates and medals in recognition of their outstanding performance in the championships.

The Self-Financing Fund Secretary General commended the Self-Financing Fund staff for their efforts in organizing and coordinating the stadiums and facilities for the Ramadan Football League for Youngsters. He also thanked the staff for their commitment and dedication in ensuring the smooth running of the championships.

The Secretary General also highlighted the role of the Self-Financing Fund in promoting youth activities and encouraging young talent. He urged the young people to continue participating in such events and to develop their skills and abilities. The Secretary General expressed his confidence in the young people's capacity to excel in their chosen fields, and he encouraged them to continue pursuing their dreams and ambitions.
Dr. Mushabbab Al Asiri congratulated the employees of KFMC on Eid Al-Fitr

Riyadh – Hamad Hanaya

The Public Relation and Media Administration in the City organized a greeting ceremony for the employees at the Grand Celebrations hall with the presence of the Executive Director of Medical Affairs, the executive directors, the hospitals’ and medical centers’ directors and a number of medical, technical and administrative staff.

Acting Chief Executive Officer Dr. Mushabbab Al Asiri opened the ceremony by congratulating the employees of the City on the occasion of Eid Al-Fitr, calling upon God to bless everyone and to protect and safeguard the country. Dr. Al Asiri expressed his wishes for a prosperous and progressing country under the rule of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques His Royal Highness King Salman Bin Abdulaziz – May Allah support him.

Dr. Mushabbab Al Asiri explained that the City has been keen on organizing this ceremony in order to enhance the love and intimacy spirit, strengthen the brotherhood bonds among the City’s employees and give them the opportunity to meet after the Eid holiday with their colleagues from other departments to exchange congratulations on this happy occasion. It is to note that the employees’ periodic general meetings are part of one of King Fahad Medical City strategies aiming at promoting a positive work environment by strengthening the social networking between the employees and motivate them to work hard as one team.

Eid al-Fitr

Festivities are the harvest seasons when you reap the fruits of all your hard work and fatigue. Therefore, Eid al-Fitr brings joy and happiness to the hearts of young and old people after having diligently performing the greatest rituals of Islam and the fourth pillar of Islam as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him said: “Allah said: Every deed of the son of Adam is for him except fasting; it is for Me and I shall reward for it,” Al-Bukhari. Every believer who wants to enter paradise and everyone strive during the holy month to win Paradise and be spared the fire of hell. Now that Eid Al-Fitr is around the corner the manifestations of festivities reign everywhere and Muslims all over the world will celebrate this Eid by visiting each other, being kind to the poor, being tolerant, ending all conflicts and refraining all hatred and resentment.

The Eid is an opportunity to come closer and rise above the small things in life that might affect the souls. It is also an opportunity to do more charity acts that shall not have a beginning or an end.

On this occasion, Madinatni family and Editorial would like to extend its warm wishes and congratulations on the occasion of Eid Al-Fitr and May Allah return it for us and for all the Muslims with goodness, peace and the blessings. We ask Allah Almighty to lead us closer to him.
